TO THE HOME COMERS.

Friends, and former residents, it is almost impossible for us to convey our feelings of delight in seeing you again upon the scenes of earlier days. It was here that you first saw the light of day, and at your mother's knee was taught to say your evening prayers; and as you grew older you could be seen driving the cows to the milking gap, carrying fuel from the wood-yard to the old porch, hear the roaring of the booming fire in the family room of the old homestead, and where you, with fond parents, sat around the fireplace and talked of work for the coming morrow. Those were days in which you were eating your white bread, though perhaps many of you were thinking of the Eldorado, inducements offered young men in the far West. Years came on, and with them a disposition to better your condition financially grew stronger, and one day you bade mother and father farewell and took your departure, for what you conceived, for greener fields. We can see the old mother and father now as they stood at the yardgate, after fondly carressing you, watching intently as you wended your way from the old homestead, to take a public conveyance to some distant state. Letters were exchanged, and as you would detail the advantages of the new country and how you were prospering, mother and father's hearts were made glad, and as they knelt in their evening prayers, fervent petitions went to God for the safe return of their loved ones. You are here this week, and how gladly we welcome you. There have been many changes since you departed, but the hospitality of the county of your nativity remains the same. The latch string is on the outside of every door, and loved ones and friends of the days of "Auld Lang Syne," with open arms are ready to receive you. We say there have been many changes, a statement you will readily verify when you take a ride over the old town and county. Friends and loved ones have long since gone to the celestial city—not dead, but watching and waiting for your coming. You are here and we would be glad if your stay could be prolonged.

"Have you not, after even a year, even a month's absence, returned to the same place, found the same groups reassembled, and yet sighed to yourself, 'But where is the charm that once breathed from the spot and once smiled from the faces.' 'Eternity itself can not restore the loss struck from the minute. Are you happy in the spot on which you tarry with the persons whose voices are now melodious to your ear?—beware of parting; or if part you must, say not in insolent defiance to Time and Destiny, 'what matters?—we shall soon meet again.'"

DIED IN TEXAS.

Mrs. Mary. C. Payne, a sister of Mrs. F. R. Winfrey, this place, died in Decatur, Texas, on May the 20th. She was 74 years old, and was born and reared in Cumberland county. She was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Brownlee, when the end came, which was sudden and a great shock to her children and friends. Before she left for Texas she made her home with her son, Mr. C. S. Coffey, at Denmark, Russell county. The deceased was twice married. Her first husband was Stanton Coffey and her last husband Reuben Payne, of Russell county.

We have received from Mr. N. B. Miller an invitation to attend the fifty-third commencement in Westminster College, Fulton, Mo. Mr. Miller's son, Nathan, is being educated in this institution, and received the following grades at the close of the term: Bible, 96; Rhetoric, 99; Latin, 96; Philosophy, 98; German, 99; French, 99. We are glad to publish such a flattering report of one of our former Columbia boys.

Dilch, the family mare which was owned by Mrs. J. H. Young, this place, died a few days ago. She was twenty-five years old and was a great favorite. When Dilch went to horse heaven there was a feeling of relief in the Young family, though she would have been sumptuously provided for had she remained in her earthly habitation another quarter of a century. Though too old to be of much service, she was never neglected.

THE LATE JUDGE JAMES GARNETT.

Judge Garnett was known by all of you and his worth both in public and private life was a great loss to this section. No one would have given you a warmer welcome than he had he been spared to meet this occasion.

"Howdy."

"How is your folks?"

"It has been a long time sine you left us."

"Every body expected that you would come."

"And every body is real glad to see your smiling face."

"We know you will have a good time for the people of Adair county are built to entertain."

"We will be at the Fair Grounds one day and participate in a general handshaking, but I want you spend a day or two with me before you return."

"You say you are getting along nicely in the West? We are certainly glad to know that Father Time has been dealing gently with you, and trust that your days may be long upon the earth."

Mr. Hubert Vreeland announces his candidacy for Secretary of State in the News today. Mr. Vreeland is the present Commissioner of Agriculture, and has made the State a very efficient officer. He is favorably known to quite a number of Adair county citizens.

Miss Artelia Montgomery, daughter of Dr. Ulysses Montgomery and a niece of Hon. J. F. Montgomery, this place, was a maid of honor in the Louisville floral parade. Miss Montgomery resides with her parents on Portland Avenue.

Persons who are making their homes elsewhere, but who formerly lived in Adair or any of the adjoining counties, and who are here this week, mingling with old friends, are requested to drop into the News office and leave their names. We will be glad to see and converse with all who may come.

All arrangements have been made for starting a bank at Russell Springs. It is our understanding that the promoters reside at Lexington. About half the stock was taken by citizens of the Springs. The place of business will be in a new building recently erected by Mr. J. E. Snow.

Miss Ella Walker entertained a large number of her young friends last Thursday evening. It was a very enjoyable occasion, all who put in an appearance being perfectly delighted with the graceful manner in which they were entertained. Refreshments were served.

Mr. Jo N. Conover has raised his dwelling another story, adding greatly to the appearance of his property.

We buy furniture in car-load lots. Our prices are right.

The Columbia Motor-Car Company has purchased another machine for the line between here and Campbellsville. It was shipped from Lansing, Michigan, last Wednesday.

Mr. Leslie A. Chapman has opened a family grocery in the old post office building, north corner public square. He keeps a good stock and wants your trade.
(31-3)

Mr. John W. Lewis, of Springfield, has sued the tax-payers of Green county to recover thirty thousand dollars for his services for getting the property holders of said county released of the bonded railroad tax. It is our understanding that the county is willing to pay a liberal fee, but that the thirty thousand dollar charge will be fought to a finish.

SEWING MACHINES.

We will beat any catalogue house on sewing machines. Come and see our stock before you buy from anybody else.

HUBERT VREELAND FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

So much encouragement has been given Hubert Vreeland, our present active and progressive young Commissioner of agriculture, to offer himself again as a candidate for a State office, that after mature consideration he has decided to become a candidate for Secretary of State. It certainly looks like he has won for himself the backing of the farmers of Kentucky for whatever he may seek, and in recognition of his efforts in their behalf since his election as State Commissioner thousands of them have urged him to offer for another State office, since the Constitution makes him ineligible for re-election. Mr. Vreeland has accomplished something in an office that was created for the farmers, but which had been of very little benefit to them, and it is refreshing to the Democrats of Kentucky when they find public servants who devote all their time and thought to fulfilling the duties of their office with energy and intelligence.

Mr. Vreeland is the youngest of the present State officials, and until the last State election had never been a candidate for office. Although it was his first appearance he won his nomination for Commissioner of Agriculture by a majority of 28,000, next to the largest majority received by any candidate in the State primary, although opposed by two prominent candidates, who made most vigorous campaigns. Mr. Vreeland has a personal acquaintance probably not surpassed by any other young man in Kentucky, extending to scores and hundreds in every one of the 119 counties in Kentucky. He is a brother of John W. Vreeland, publisher of the Farmer's Home Journal, and at the head of the Democratic Executive Committee in Louisville and Jefferson county, and of Graham Vreeland, managing editor of the Courier-Journal, who for ten years was the Legislature correspondent of the Courier-Journal at Frankfort.

The Democratic nominations for State officers will be made again by State primary in November, and Mr. Vreeland has begun an active campaign. Up to the present time he has no opposition.

BARGER STAR OF THE OUTLAWS.

Barger, of the Rochester Eastern League club, the Kentucky University twirler whom Manager Buckenberger gave a trial last spring and later released, is the star of the T. League this season. He is with Lancaster outlaws and has pitched them this season to ten victories. Last spring he was a lanky bush leaguer, with natural hitting ability and the promise of being a star twirler on development.—Louisville Post.

Mr. Sid Hatcher, of Carroll county, Mo., a brother to Mr. Sherrod Hatcher, of near Columbia, is one of Adair County's home comers. He left this county 37 years ago and this is his first return. He left home at that time to be gone one year, but had his mind been made for a 2 years stay his folks would doubtless never have met him around the old hearth stone. Mr. Hatcher is a neighbor of our old townsmen Mr. C. R. Warriner, whom he reports to be well and who sends his good wishes to friends in this section.

Harvest is in full blast and many of our farmers are feeling good over the assurance of a bountiful yield. The crop seems to be above the average generally, for this section. Quite a number of our best farmers are expecting from 20 to 25 bushels per acre. The fact is that it is hard to closely estimate the yield but the amount will soon be determined by the threshers, which will start in a few days.
